Dated Bangalore, 24th Sept 1898

SIR,

Messrs H. W. Smith. A. Maigndadeva Mudaliar and Company, brewers in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, having stated that the Mysore Durbar had agreed to their beer being sold in the retail shops licensed to sell beer in the Bangalore city. the Collector Civil and Military station has authorised the export of beer under the same terms as to shops in the said station ie on payment of duty and on the issues and permits being checked by the Amildar of the station before the beer is transported to the city.

I

I am directed to inquire whether the Resident sees any objection to this procedure.

2. I am to explain that under Act XIII of 1890 - the Excise (malt Liquors) Act - which is in force in the Civil and Military station, all duty on beer locally brewed whether exported elsewhere or not is leviable here and credited to the revenues of the station. Bilgri beer imported into the station pays no duty here while in respect of beer manufactured here and exported to the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, duty is collected in the station and credited to its revenues.
